Communist Press Items Regarding Negro Matters

Letter to the Director:

Detroit - The May 13th 1951 edition of Daily Worker published a speech given by Josephine Baker protesting the execution of Willie McGee. This article states that the Negro theatrical star Miss Josephine Baker spoke for 10 minutes Tuesday at the Fox Theater where she is appearing this week. The newspaper reports that just before the show was ready to begin Miss Baker appeared on stage, she walked to the front of the footlights and with tears streaming down her cheeks told a spellbound audience.

Josephine Baker

They have killed one of my people, Willie McGee. He was executed. I feel very deeply about it. I feel very deeply for my people, just as you feel very deeply about yours. Today is a tragic one for all American Negroes and darker peoples of the world. The execution of Willie McGee does not stop with just the death of McGee. It means a part of every American Negro died a little with him. I know in the tradition of the theatre that the show must go on but I want you to know how I feel and what difficulties I am having. But I will go ahead nevertheless.

(Baker Snaps One Finger and An Audio Remix of Fidel Castro and Cuban crowd begins. She Snaps the Other and a DeGaulle Voice/French Crowd Track Begins. The Sound Track Mix Serves as a background counterpoint to the two speeches. initially the two sound tracks tango for a while, then the speeches begin, Havana to one side, Paris to the other.)

Murder

Baker Exits

JEH

150, 000 murderers are roaming the Untied States. 300,000 citizens are walking the streets of the towns of America unaware that they are doomed to die in the hands of murderers. One out of every 25 persons in the United States is inclined to CRIMINALITY. If the criminal world were to marshal it forces, they would march ceaselessly past, hour upon hour, in daylight and darkness, and back to daylight again, 10 to 20 abreast. America would fall in a few hours to an army of MURDERERS.

WINCHELL

New York City - Last Monday night the G-Men captured a tough guy. Taking no chances of having any more of their men killed the G - Men used machine guns to get what they wanted, a very dangerous criminal. They got him. Now newspapers and writers are attacking the G- Men and their chief. Mr. Hoover is heckled, belittled and condemned for making America a safer place for children to live in. The widows of G- Men who died for your family and mine, whose men died shooting it out with Dillinger, and "Baby Face" Nelson must be appalled. Take this from one who knows how courageous the G- Men are. They are not glory hunters. They are man hunters.

HOOVER

Thank you Walter, you made a succinct and pertinent observation. I am grateful. The forces you speak of are trying to belittle, ridicule and smear the G- Men. They are the writers of slime columns. They suffer from mental halitosis. These editorial writers have an aggravated case of mental diarrhea. They regurgitate their own filth. They tear down that which restrains the criminals of the underworld. The criminal morons can only be held in check by fear and a respect by vigorous apprehension and punishment. I know instances where the actual criminals we've apprehended have had in their very possession clippings of newspaper columns written by the above alluded to –coyotes. Walter, I sometime wonder whether America really wants clean and effective crime enforcement.

WINCHELL

And that Mr. and Mrs. 48 winds up another Winchell, next Sunday night at the very same time. Until then I remain your New York correspondent. Bur before I go remember that tomorrow marks the 30th year John Edgar Hoover has been head of the FBI, but he actually started thirty –seven years ago on next July 26.

He has not amassed any monetary awards to show for three decades of public service; in fact Mr. Hoover is practically poor. Not long ago, he paid for the mortgage on his home; the one his mother gave him. John Edgar Hoover has amassed no loot for his years of public service, but he does have the nation's admiration and respect and the President's handshake and salute. So I'm sure I speak for all Americans and say, "here, John Edgar Hoover is our affectionate embrace."

READER

John Edgar Hoover, The Director the number one g-man — g-man Hoover was born January 1, 1895 in the District of Columbia. He entered the Department of Justice in 1917 and in 1924 was named the first Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, a position he upheld up to his death May 2, 1972. He made his name – got his job- going after and bringing down John Dillenger and Al Capone – and then after Capone he went after Commies. Hoover was the first to use fingerprints; gave us all the early crime fighting paraphernalia. He was the father the modern surveillance world. But this was one father that never married and when he died - the number one G-man Hoover– left everything - his entire estate all of it - to the number two G- man, Clyde Tolson. Tolson was the associate director of the FBI. He was also the number one man in the Directors life. The number two-man was.... Walter Winchell.

READER

Walter Winchell was born in New York City on April 7th in 1897. Like Hoover Winchell was also a father, the father of nasty talk radio and nasty watch TV. This father married a good American girl and he frolicked with a parade of Vegas ShowGirls. He was a vaudeville child star who became a newspaper columnist – and a radio and TV celeb. His column was carried by – xxxx newspapers – his Sunday radio was xxxx. He was first out of the gate in television, thanks to his peculiar relationship with Lucy and Desi (more on that later). Winchell died in 1972, four months before his and our number one g- man, J Edgar.

READER

Hoover and Winchell – John and Walter – it was not as grotesque as it might appear. Both were men enjoyed power more than wealth, had deep persecution complexes and were always visualizing dark conspiracies fashioned by invisible enemies, and had genuinely frenzied impatience with criticism of any sort. They loved playing cops and robbers. Winchell felt that he "owned" the FBI. Winchell received FBI tips geared to the hour of his Sunday night broadcast, so that he could be first with the news. He had first rights to all data on the care and feeding of the chief g-man. He boasted to associates that Hoover had a direct telephone connection for him and he need never be in the dark when the FBI can shed light. The public record is full of love and kisses. On March twenty one, nineteen forty-eight, Winchell was able to publish this ardent love-letter from the head of the FBI- "Dear Walter"

HOOVER

Walter just a note to say hello, and do take good care of yourself and don't overdo because you are far too valuable to our country. You must get a lot of satisfaction now that so many of your "hysterical" assertions and predictions are becoming all too real. Some individuals must surely be having acute hydrophobia in finally having to recognize how true you have been all along. With best wishes I am, Sincerely, John.

Reader

Anyway, Winchell has reciprocated these emotions a thousand- fold. It was to Hoover he offered, on July first, nineteen forty- six, what Winchell must have regarded as the highest tribute a man can pay to his fellow- man when he wrote.

WINCHELL

Booby-hatch inmates no longer think they are Napoleon. According to N.Y. State medicos, they think they are J. Edgar Hoover.

Department of State - Division of Security

Case Classification Title - Investigation of Mr. Maybe Turncoat

Place - Habana, Cuba

There is evidence that subject a Foreign Service Employee - Mr. Turncoat - made reservations at Habana Hotel Presidente for Josephine Baker. Developed Informant - Mrs. B Right of Habana, Cuba. Mrs. B Right works at the Habana Post, an English language newspaper published in Habana. She was interviewed. According to Mrs. B Right...

Mrs. B Right

I was much interested in the scheduled visit of Josephine Baker to Cuba. On a prior visit to Havana Miss Baker had caused considerable unrest and misunderstanding in the minds of the Cuban people about racial conditions in the United States. I took it upon myself to wage a public campaign so that woman would not be allowed to return to visit Cuba, and then I received the good news. Miss Baker would not be visiting Cuba. What a wonderful surprise. A few days later I was at a cocktail party at the American Embassy. A Foreign Service Employee was also present at the party, a Mr. Turncoat. During the course of the evening, Mr. Turncoat approached me and in a rather sneering attitude asked me...

Mr. Turncoat

So how's your friend Miss Baker making out?

Mrs. B Right

My friend, ha! I don't know, but I'm glad she's not coming to Cuba.

Mr. Turncoat

Ha! Baker is coming to Cuba. She arrives in a few days.

Mrs. B Right

I've information to the contrary.

Mr. Turncoat

I believe you are mistaken.

Mrs. B Right

Well if Miss Baker does come to Cuba, I hope she won't cause "incidents" such as those she precipitated during her previous visits.

Reader – Reporting Officer

By "incidents" Mrs. B Right related exactly what she meant.

Mrs. B Right

Just because Baker couldn't get a hotel room at a first class hotel the last time she came to that does not give her the excuse to stir up all this adverse publicity.

Reader - Reporting Officer

To this Maybe Turncoat replied,

Mr. Turncoat

... there's no problem. Miss Baker already had reservations to stay at the Hotel Presidente.

Mrs. B Right

How doe you know? Are you responsible for her getting into the Hotel Presidente?

Reader – Reporting Officer

Mr. Maybe Turncoat shrugged his shoulders and in a grinning way replied...

Mr. Turncoat

"maybe".

Reader – Reporting Officer

From this "maybe" reply Mrs. B Right was left with the impression that...

Mrs. B Right

Maybe Turncoat had arranged for Miss Baker to stay at the Hotel Presidente.

Reader – Reporting Officer

A heated argument ensued between Mrs. B Right and Maybe Turncoat when Maybe took the position of siding with Miss Baker's cause and remarking...

Mr. Turncoat

It's wrong for first class hotels to refuse Miss Baker a room the last time she came to Habana. It wasn't democratic. She should have been allowed to stay there. Miss Baker should be accepted as a great artist, and the fact that she is a Negro should not bar her from admittance to any hotel in Cuba.

Mr. Maybe Turncoat Exits

Reader – Reporting Officer

Mrs. B Right in continuation of her campaign against Miss Baker coming to Cuba published.....

Mrs. B Right – I published in the Havana Post that Josephine Baker was coming to Cuba and would reside at the Hotel Presidente.

Reader – Reporting Officer

She also disclosed in the Havana Post, additional information that she had discovered

Mrs. B Right

That Miss Baker has a contract to appear at the Montmarte Night Club and a contract with the Radio Station CMQ, both in Havana.

Reader – Reporting Officer

Subsequently Mrs. B Right personally visited the owner of the Montemarte Club and the owner of Radio Station CMQ, and Mrs. B Right claims she was ...

Mrs. B Right

I was primarily responsible for Miss Baker's contract being cancelled at both places.

Reader – Reporting Officer

Mrs. B Right then went to the Hotel Presidente.

Mrs. B Right

I saw some “friends” and Miss Baker's reservations at the Hotel were also cancelled.

Reader – Reporting Officer

It is her understanding that as a result her, Mrs. B Rights efforts,

Mrs. B Right

Miss Baker didn't stay at the Hotel Presidente but had to lease an apartment in the neighborhood of the Hotel. Miss Baker remained in Habana for three weeks but was unsuccessful in having her contracts renewed.

Reader – Reporting Officer

In conclusion, Mrs. B Right stated she is going to fight people like Josephine Baker and everything they stand for until she dies.

Mrs. B Right

I am going to fight people like Josephine Baker and everything they stand for until I die.

Reader

Maybe Turncoat was interviewed on September 9, 10, 24 and 27, by officers with the Office of Security, United - States Information Agency. He executed the following signed statement.

Mr. Turncoat

"I, make the following statement voluntarily to the Chief, Office of Security, and U.S. Information Agency. I realize that I do not have to make any statements and that anything I say may be used against me in connection with my placement in the Agency. I have been asked to comment on the following allegations:

Reader-Interrogator- Grand Inquisitor

YOU arranged for hotel reservations for Josephine Baker during her visit to Havana in February 1953.

YOU used pressure on contractors to engage Josephine Baker's services in Havana.

YOU sided with Miss Baker's case, stating "it is not democratic to allow Miss Baker to stay at the Hotel Presidente".

YOU said Miss Baker's should be accepted as a great artist and the fact that she is a Negro should not bar her admittance to any hotel.

Mr. Turncoat

"My comments on the foregoing allegations will be numbered to correspond to the allegations.

(a) I never arranged hotel accommodations for Josephine Baker in Havana.

"(b) I never brought pressure on contractors to engage Josephine Baker's services in Havana. On the contrary, I did everything possible to prevent Josephine Baker from appearing in a professional capacity in Havana.

"(c) I never sided with Miss Baker's case and never stated that it was "not democratic" to allow Miss Baker to stay at the Hotel Presidente. Statements attributed to me to this effect might have arisen due to the fact that I felt that refusal to allow Miss Baker to stay in a Havana Hotel because of her color would give ammunition to the Communists, ammunition the Communists would use against us. I might have said it was too bad she could not get a reservation in a hotel because of this consideration. It should be remembered that Cuban Negroes constitute approximately 20 percent of the population and that the Communists in Cuba are constantly using evidences of racial discrimination in the United States in order to damage the prestige of the United States in Cuba among the Negro population.

"(d) I never made the statement that Miss Baker was a great artist. With respect to my attitude to her being admitted to hotels in Havana see my answers to (a) and (c) above.

Josephine Baker Fails In Try To Force CMQ To Let Her Perform

Josephine Baker "picketed" the Vedodo studios of CMQ yesterday afternoon and evening in an unsuccessful attempt to force the radio-TV station owners to employ her services.

She said that since her arrival she had "almost" signed a contract to appear at the American Theater but that the manager had backed out because he did not want to run the risk of losing his American films franchise. In the press conference held at her apartment called for local newsmen. Miss Baker had expressed "pain" over ...

JB

....the coolness of my reception in Cuba. I am being "persecuted" for my convictions.. I've been accused by American newspapers of being a "transmission belt" for Communist anti-American propaganda. I am not "in anybody's service." I'm not seeking publicity. I've come to Cuba to "work as an artist....and not to lecture... but in view of what I see and hear I feel I must speak out. When one is gravely ill one must do something to save one's self. If my persecution continues I will continue to appeal for the support of "millions of human beings of beaten races."

For the Ambassador

Embassy Dispatch No 1312

With even less fanfare than at her arrival, Josephine Baker left by air for Europe on after a three week stay in Habana. Her visit to Cuba was of little value to her cause. She failed to enroll Cuba's President Baktista in her world Association against Racial and Religious Discrimination. She made no talks, and the press conference she called was attended only by Communist – line reporters, and from papers of little significance. All in all, Miss Baker's influence on Cuban Negroes may well be appraised as negligible.

JB

In the battles for freedom, many have fallen, perhaps I am called on to be sacrificed, but that does not matter to me: it is necessary to fight for progress.

JEH

We are aware of the Communist Party's infiltration tactics in this regard. The infiltration of legitimate organizations, such as the PTA, church, civic and similar groups, has been part of the United Front Program of the Communist Party.

WINCHELL

The propaganda line used by various Communist Front Groups is that the FBI is going to make wholesale raids and arrest thousands of people. This is entirely without foundation. Only active Communist leaders over here need worry.

JEH

What!!!

Reader

To: The Director - I wish to advise as follows: Sergei Prokofieff is a famous Russian musician and is the author of several orchestrations, including "The Three Oranges". This is regarded as a classic and by arrangers of music for radio and the movies frequently borrowed strands from it to denote suspense. "The Three Oranges" furnish the motif not only for the musical theme of "The FBI in Peace and in War” but also the theme for "This is your FBI!". The Bureau's files contain no references, which would indicate Prokofieff's personal political beliefs and or connections.

JEH - It looks as if WW has got us with this one. From now on we ought to be able to utilize music by someone other than that of a well-known Communist.

The Committee for Negroes in the Arts sponsored a "Sunday brunch" at the hotel Theresa, New York City. Awards were presented to twelve Negro cultural personalities for work in behalf of Negro artists. Mrs. Alice Childress the star of "Candy Story" stated that the Negro was not being mentioned in the celebration of the two hundredth anniversary celebration of the United States theatre. Mrs. Childress said the Negro cannot be forgotten in the theatre. The committee for the Negro in the Arts - wants a real Negro theatre for America, a theatre about Negroes, by Negroes, and for Negroes with the plays performed in Negro neighborhoods. The article described this affair as a tribute to Josephine Baker. Josephine Baker was honored for her work on behalf of Negro artists.

The following articles appeared in Illinois editions of "The Worker", a communist newspaper: Josephine Baker insisted she would only sing at the Chicago theater before a mixed band. She disturbed the composure of those who take the view that the real gains for the Negro people can come only after a long, long time. In her blunt, outspoken manner, she burst the 'progress' bubble, which is used for hiding purposes by those who refuse to fight for liberation now.

Internationally famous entertainer and fighter for Negro rights, Josephine Baker is scheduled to visit a rally protesting Levittown's anti-negro discrimination. The rally is part of a campaign to prevent the threatened eviction of the Adolph Ross family of 52 Honeysuckle lane. The family is being evicted because two summers ago they entertained Negro children on their lawn. Josephine Baker, internationally famous entertainer and fighter against bias, scheduled to attend Saturday's rally, wired:

Josephine Baker

"I am deeply concerned over this question of segregation and discrimination. America will never achieve its destiny until the American people themselves are able to love each other and work together to achieve the American ideals."

Five Television shows, The Web, Bride & Groom, Love Of Life, Search For Tomorrow, And Guiding Light were rated objectionable in its current findings of the National Television Review Board announced during March. The board, an independent organization surveying TV shows since 1950, also named two programs variable- Winchell and Superman. The Web was rated objectionable because of an "excess of crime and violence at an hour that precedes bedtime for children, while Bride & Groom deprecates the sanctity of the Holy Vows....makes sacred ritual too commercial. The three soap operas, Search For Tomorrow, Guiding Light, And The Love Of Life, were objectionable because of "sordid situations"... no value placed on family life.....vulgarity displayed.... excess of adultery and drinking." Walter Winchell, the report continued was variable because his TV program, "peddles distrust and possible hatred. Superman was variable due to an "excess of violence."

Walter Winchell requests the Director check the National Television Review board and Robert Kubicek, the head of the agency. Winchell's notations are as follows:

Re: David Slavitt, Author of the Voyeur

Walter Winchell called Special Agent MALONE to advise as follows:

Jacqueline Susanne, author of "Valley of the Dolls", is married to one Irving Mansfield, who is also her producer and manager. Winchell stated, he met Mansfield on the street in New York and during the conversation, Mansfield mentioned that he had heard some revolting news concerning a very good friend of Winchell. He said that Bernard Geis is publishing a book in which he will name J. Edgar Hoover as a homosexual. Winchell was not able to furnish any further. He suggested that we contact Irving Mansfield for further information.

To: The Director FBI

Discreet inquiry by the New York office disclosed the following:

The tentative title of the book in question is "The Voyeur", a French word which really means "peeping tom". The book is written under the pen name of Henry Sutton. The man's real name is David Slavitt. A source advised that "The Voyeur" does not mention names but the people can be easily identified by references to them. He cited as an example, "well know publisher of girlie magazine", which automatically would be Hugh Heffner. The source indicated that references clearly point to the person intended and where they say "the head of the FBI" name not mentioned, is a "fag", naturally since there had only been one head of the FBI for the last 30 years or more, a mistake can not be made. Any additional information received regarding the publication date, or the contents of the proposed book, will be furnished to the bureau.

To: Nease From: Jones

You will recall that the Desilu productions sent to the Director the first two "Walter Winchell File television films. They have been reviewed by Special Agent Kemper and are as follows.

1. The first program deals with the apprehension of burglary suspects by the New York City Police Department and evolves around a police officer, whose wife has just had a baby and whose personal courage is being tested in a gun battle. Walter Winchell, as roving reporter, is on the scene and reports the gun battle first hand. There is considerable violence but law enforcement is shown in an excellent fashion.
2. The second scrip deals with a mad man who murder his girl friend, kills a police officer and is later killed in self defense by a minister. The minister sits in judgment on him and he ends up by leaving his parish and goes to a prison where he becomes the chaplain. This is a very tense drama and is rather violent.

These are half –hour shows, and include the Revlon advertisements. Running time one hour. These are 16-mm prints and if Director desires to see them arrangements will be made.

There were several calls last evening after the Winchell broadcast. The United Press, The Associated Press, The Washington News, and The Washington Post Sports Department all inquired if there was any truth to the Winchell statement the Director had been offered a million dollars as the czar of boxing. All were answered by no comment. This morning Clark Mollenhoff of the Des Moines Register Tribune called and asked if he could see the Director. I told him he was wasting his time. The Director would make no comment and did not want to see him. However if there were any new developments we would call him.

AIR COURIER -Re: Josephine Baker - Foreign Miscellaneous

Director, FBI-Dear Sir:

Attached is a clipping from the Rio de Janeiro afternoon newspaper, "O Globo." The article, with two photos of Josephine Baker, is headed "Josephine Baker A Servico De Uma Grande Causa". The article reports that Josephine Baker is presently in Rio, where she has had a successful run in two night clubs, one theater in a small revue. The article tells of her intention to form a Rio de Janeiro branch of the World Association against Racial and Religious Discrimination. Further in this "O Globo" article she refers to the Stork Club, and to a Mr. Walter Winchell. Apparently some months ago, when she was in the United States, Baker became involved in an incident at the New York night club, The Stork Club, in which she accused the management of racial discrimination. In some way, Walter Winchell, the newspaper columnist, came into the picture in opposition to her. The writer knows of the incident vaguely only through sparse newspaper attention given it here in Brazil. The above is for the Bureau's files. Very truly yours-Martin Carlsen

October 25, 1951. The New York post – by line - Ted Boston - The mayor's committee continued its inquiry into charges that Miss Baker was treated rudely on Oct. 16 when she visited the club as guests of Roger Rico, French singing star of "South Pacific," and Mrs. Rico. The committee received a go-ahead sign from New York mayor Impellitteri "to turn the spotlight of public opinion on the Stork Club and any place in new York where discrimination is practiced."

Reader

All of New York City's major political parties for the first time have come together unanimously in opposition stork club's anti-negro policies. GOP republican candidate for mayor representative Latham last night joined the picket line in front of the stork club. Latham told the 50 NAACP pickets, "I am with you all the way in this fight against discrimination." NAACP executive secretary Walter White accused Walter Winchell of trying to smear the pickets at the Stork Club as "communists or communist sympathizers."

Reader

Winchell, who was present in the stork club on Oct. 16 while waiters allegedly refused miss baker food, wrote today in his column that several of the stork club picketers were communists. the NAACP's white said that was a lie and the NAACP pickets have been carefully screened to prevent communist participation. White asked Winchell, "Is your fight against bigotry to stop at the door of the Stork Club?"

Reader

The American Civil Liberties Union today entered the battle over the stork club. the ACLU demanded that the mayor's committee on unity hold public hearings on the discourteous treatment of Josephine Baker. The ACLU said, "New York City has achieved a great deal in the campaign to eliminate practices of racial discrimination from our community. It must once again make clear its opposition to such practice."

Reader

The mayor has announced that he will not go to the stork club "or any other place that practices discrimination." the investigation of the baker incident is still being continued today by the state liquor authority and by representatives of president Truman, to whom Miss Baker had protested. Today the St. Louis-born singer who is in Baltimore said

Josephine Baker- I'm returning to New York to continue my fight against the Stork Club.

Dear W. W. Just read your column on j. b. I'm a Scotchman. in 36 I visited Leningrad. I wandered into the Russian bar at the hotel one night. While I was there this "big shot" show ups. She's surrounded by red commissars and French reds. She's singing and drinking with them, all to her heart's content. It was j.b, the only colored person there. She came to the u.s.s.r. With a large group of French reds, "as guests of the soviet union." those reds wined and dined her and were laughing up their sleeves at her. They have no Negroes in the u.s.s.r. She was just a novelty, and a good stooge. If you check it out you will probably find that j. b. is just a highly colored copy of mata hari. Looks to me like she's doing her stuff for Uncle Joe, still following the party line everywhere she goes. Sorry she implicated you Walter, but that might have been one of her assignments? Dear Walter Winchell,

I have always considered you to be a good judge of character, and after reading your Sunday column on my notorious countrywoman, Jo Baker, I am convinced of it. It was good to see that you had seen right through her race hating campaign. She professes to want to help our race, and yet she calmly...

Josephine Baker

...goes about destroying the little progress made toward better race relations. Her chief ambition in life seems to be to make fabulous salaries, wear priceless gowns, marry European counts and arrest Texans for supposedly calling her a nigger. It made me sick to read how she had gone to France and depicted us as near slaves in this wonderful country of ours. I know there is still a lot to be desired in the treatment of Negroes, but her running to Paris to be "treated like a human being" isn't helping any. Why couldn't she stay here and fight like millions of other Negroes are doing? My mother says that years ago when she saw Jo Baker perform in New York, her act was so immoral that its no wonder they "panned" her. If she can't stand this wicked treatment, she can always go back to her beloved France, and good riddance. Sincerely yours,
a colored student

Reader

Josephine Baker filed a Libel Action against Walter Winchell, Hearst Corp., and King Features, Inc. individually, and jointly, in the amount of $400,000. The complaint alleges that on or about 10/16/51 JOSEPHINE BAKER, in company with friends visited the Stork Club, was treated discourteously. It states that friends of BAKER formed a picket line for a few evenings thereafter. Baker alleges that....

Josephine Baker

Walter Winchell was present that evening at the Stork Club; and that Winchell resented the bad publicity; and that Walter Winchell thereafter embarked upon a public campaign to vilify libel and damage Baker's reputation and professional standing. Further, the complaint alleged that Walter Winchell maliciously, wantonly and recklessly printed and published information concerning Baker in the "NY Daily Mirror" and in various papers throughout the United States. Baker alleges that Winchell said that Baker ..I was an Italian Fascist, a sympathizer of Italian Fascists

Winchell ... that she planned the incident for purposes of publicity and self-display; that Baker "horn swoggled", deceived and cheated colored people into accepting her as a heroine and champion; that Baker's pro-Communists, and a fellow traveler; that the Stork Club incident was a "job"; that she engage in lascivious dancing; that the places where she performs do not want colored patronage; that Baker does not mix with colored people, that Baker's anti-Negro and only want to be with white people; that her status in the United States is illegal that Baker's under surveillance by the Government, that she might be prevented from ever entering the US again; that Baker's intellectually dishonest; a complete opportunist, an Anti-Semite, hates Jewish people, a fraud and is a person of low and doubtful character.

Mr. Noto again advised me that INS Commissioner Swing has taken a personal interest in the Baker case. Commissioner Swing has directed that the INS obtain sufficient information to order Baker's exclusion from the United States. The INS is conducting an additional inquiry in order to obtain this information. Mr. Noto has requested that Bureau files once again reviewed to insure that all pertinent derogatory information in possession of the Bureau be furnished to the INS. “I don’t consider this to be any of my business.” -

Subject: Josephine Baker – Press Interviews in Buenos Aires

Baker is in Buenos Aires. She is representing herself as a member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. She delivered a series of detailed and impassioned accounts of race prejudice in the United States, all of which have been given dramatic play by newspapers in Buenos Aires. Baker delivered her opening discourse on Tuesday, November 4, the evening following her benefit performance at the Teatro Colon for the Eva Peron Monument fund. The speech was delivered in English and simultaneously translated into Spanish by an interpreter

Josephine Baker

North American democracy is a farce. The United States Negroes are the objects of threats and intimidations. Lynchings, condemnations without trial, electrocutions, are dealt out coldly to Negroes in order to form the climate of racial violence. In the country where I was born they speak of “democracy” and of “civilization” while Negroes are sent to die in Korea. There are many, very many people, who, with the greatest naiveté, look upon the United States as a model. It is necessary to open their eyes. Racial and religious discrimination is like an octopus which releases a black liquid to conceal itself.

I have heard that steps are being taken to prohibit my return to the United States. I hope they know that none of these threats can prevent my carrying on my trust until all men are equal. Although they can prevent my entry into their country, they will not stop my activities as long as there are those who need me. This would not worry me in the slightest if I knew that Negroes no longer needed me. The reason I had to flee from that country was to put my name and myself at their disposal, and to do what I knew they could not do for themselves. If my entry into the United States is forbidden, this for me will be an honor will show that my work for humanity has been successful.

Ladies and gentlemen, I have spoken to you about the horrors existing in a country, which calls itself the guiding democracy of the world. I ask you - should such horrors exist in any country and especially in one, which wishes to govern the world? The United States is not a free country, and believe me I am not jealous of those who live there. What does the famous statue of Liberty represent? Where is this Democracy which so many North Americans speak with conviction? The people in the United States who struggle against race prejudice and for justice live in terror. In this horror of discrimination, where is democracy? At this moment in North America I am branded, because I have the courage to speak of the atrocities resulting from race and religious discrimination. In the white newspapers of that country, there is hardly ever anything printed about the Negroes. But I am the latest news. I am the traitoress; I am the undesirable, the traitoress.

...a poem, inscribed on a Statue....

*Not like the brazen giant of Greek fame
With conquering limbs astride from land to land;
Here at our sea-washed, sunset gates shall stand
A mighty woman with a torch, whose flame
Is the imprisoned lightning, and her name
Mother of Exiles. From her beacon-hand
Glow world-wide welcome; her mild eyes command
The air-bridged harbor that twin cities frame,
"Keep, ancient lands, your storied pomp!" cries she with silent lips. Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore,
Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed to me,
I lift my lamp beside the golden door!*

Tanzania Baker represented the international league against racism and anti-Semitism. Baker in all of her presentations in Tanzania reminded her audiences of her naturalization as a French citizen and of her American St. Louis origin.

American aid for underdeveloped areas is merely a cloak to disguise the real twin motives of the United States: the cultural domination of the population and the economic exploitation of their land.

Walter Winchell stopped by the Bureau's LA office today and dictated a rambling story concerning a possible suspect in a Los Angeles local murder case. He also had incoherent information concerning a person who first called him several weeks ago in Los Angeles, saying he had information concerning a matter of national security.

Reader

To: The Director

Regarding your request if we knew the "identify" of the three protesters referred to in Winchell's The New York Daily column, one whom he claimed has an extensive criminal record, the second whom he called a "Pothead" and the third a homosexual. On the basis of information available to us we cannot identify any of them. The only way we could pin this down would be to interview Winchell, but given his penchant for using half-truths and innuendoes, it is believed that direct contact with Winchell would be undesirable. We will take no action unless you desire the Bureau to contact Winchell.

The little ones were presented with gift packages of Argentine caramels in the airport reception hall. Before leaving the airport we asked Josephine Baker what her conduct rules for the children were. The weary mama replied:

Fraternity and union, instead of separation

Reader

It was evident that Josephine Baker, with this short phrase, wished to condemn racial discrimination from which she suffered so much in the country of her birth. We asked her if she respected her children's nationality.

JOSEPHINE BAKER - Only that, no adjectives are necessary. We don't need them. There are things which are in themselves the epitome. In this case art, has said a great deal, and in only two words. All the adjectives we would like to use are superfluous.

Reader

Josephine Baker! Only that, she alone on the stage, singing... always singing. With a fresh voice, full of nuances. Resisting time, an artist who goes beyond her epoch. Her epoch! No, she has none. She transcends time. Her performance soars above frontiers. It is not pinned to a particular place.

Reader

She is herself and nothing but herself. Her appearance on stage first brings thoughts of fantasy, afterwards, of her art. The audience bursts into wild applause with shots of BRAVO! There is a delirious demonstration of optimism. The optimism healthily arises in the presence of an artist who speaks a language that everybody understands. Song rises spontaneously from her throat, with the emphasis and clarity of one who has perfect command of her music.

Reader

The audience is enraptured. One song said everything; The Village. When all men live in peace, mankind will be happy. A clear message of brotherhood flows over the stage when she sings it. It is a call which one must answer without delay. Her voice becomes tender, takes on unsuspected nuances, reaching each spectator; there is complete silence.

Reader

It is an inspired melody. Thunderous applause fills the hall. The audience can't stop applauding. No adjective is necessary. JOSEPHINE BAKER! Only that....The song ends. Its echoes remain.

All the readers exit, the multimedia FBI file collage continues
